Good to know

- Prices are per person in US dollars on twin sharing, land only, and are payable in rupees at the day's exchange rate. Valid for travel from 1 October 2026 to 31 March 2027.
- Prices depend on how many of you travel together, because the car and guide are yours alone: groups of three or more pay less each.
- From 15 December 2026 to 15 January 2027 a peak supplement applies: USD 30 per person with 3-star hotels, USD 60 with 4-star and USD 115 with 5-star. Hotels also charge compulsory Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve dinners.
- Entry fees are not included; we add them to your quote at the lower rates for Indian passport holders.
- Whale watching runs from Mirissa from November to April, about USD 65 per person; sightings are likely but not guaranteed.
- Yala safaris run in open jeeps for about three hours; the jeep and park fees (about USD 65 per person) are added to your quote. Yala usually closes for part of September and October.
- Children under 4 sharing their parents' bed stay free; children aged 4 to 11 have lower rates, quoted on request.
- At temples, cover shoulders and knees and take off shoes and hats; never pose with your back to a Buddha statue.
- Alcohol is not sold on Poya (full-moon) days, including in hotels.
- Apply for your Sri Lanka ETA online before you travel; we confirm the current rules for Indian passports when you book.
- On request: Kandyan dance show (an hour of Kandyan, fire and drum dances in Kandy); Extra nights, or other hotels (ask us for any hotel or another town); Flights from Mumbai (quoted separately for your dates).
